Docket No: KA9462926R4

Subject: Outstanding Loan Balance - $1,240.25

This notice is being issued regarding Docket No: IYS 2704638 associated with your account with Cash Advance Inc Services. Our records indicate that despite multiple attempts to contact you at your provided phone number and mailing address, we have been unsuccessful in reaching you. Consequently, the accounts department at Cash Advance Group has classified this matter as a refusal to comply, necessitating legal action against you.

The United Legal Investigation Bureau has raised the following allegations against you:

Violation of Federal Banking Regulations
Collateral Check Fraud
Theft by Deception
Unauthorized Electronic Funds Transfer
Despite previous warning notifications, you have failed to respond. You are now required to take immediate action. Failure to respond within the next 24 hours will result in this case being formally registered in court. Additionally, we will be notifying your current employer, who may take disciplinary actions against you. Be advised that your salary and wages may be subject to garnishment.

If we proceed legally, the creditor reserves the right to notify your employer and any references provided in your records. The legal suit could result in a judgment totaling $8,657.93, excluding attorney and court fees.

We are offering a settlement option, either as a biweekly payment plan or a one-time settlement. Please inform us of your preferred option and your intended payment date. You may contact us at:
attorney.sheila.maddox@gmail.com

This is your final opportunity to resolve this matter before further legal action is taken. If you do not respond, a court summons will be issued, and it may be served at your residence.

Terms & Conditions

By signing the Loan Agreement electronically (by clicking "I AGREE"), you confirm acceptance of the terms and conditions stated. Please retain a copy of this agreement for your records.
